

Call for Proposals

This Seminar focuses on the ways in which, beginning from categories of other religions, Western/Christian concepts and categories can be rethought in terms of these categories. Such an approach acknowledges that within Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Confucianism, and Daoism there are well developed and highly sophisticated thinkers and schools. This year, we will focus on a recently edited publication After Appropriation: Explorations in Intercultural Philosophy and Religion (ed. by Morny Joy, University of Calgary Press, 2011), whereby all members of the Seminar have contributed.

Mission

Traditional comparative philosophies of religion and comparative theologies, insofar as they existed, have largely integrated the non-Western, non-Christian, “other” into Western categories. We investigate ways in which, beginning from categories of other religions, Western/Christian categories can be rethought in terms of these categories. Such an approach acknowledges that within Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Confucianism, and Daoism there are well-developed and highly sophisticated thinkers and schools.

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposer names are visible to Chairs but anonymous to steering committee members.

Questions?

Morny Joy
University of Calgary

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Tsingsong Vincent Shen
University of Toronto

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Method of Submission

Submit to PAPERS