

Call for Proposals

Continuing its explorations of the intersections of black theology, culture, and religious diversity, this Group invites paper and panel proposals in the following areas:

- Black theology and theologies of the Spirit — broadly understood to include Pneumatology in a Christian sense, Pentecostalism, notions of Spirit in African-derived religions, etc.
- Queering black theology — a panel discussion of Roger A. Sneed's Representations of Homosexuality: Black Liberation Theology and Cultural Criticism (New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2010)
- Black theology as public theology in the age of social networks, digital and online media, and cyber-religion (for a possible cosponsored session with the Science, Technology and Religion Group)

Mission

This Group seeks to further develop black theology as an academic enterprise. In part, this is accomplished by providing the opportunity for exchanges related to basic issues of black theology's content and form. In addition, we seek to broaden conversation by bringing black theology into dialogue with other disciplines and perspectives on various aspects of African diaspora religious thought and life.

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposer names are visible to Chairs but anonymous to Steering Committee Members.

Questions?

Monica A. Coleman
Claremont School of Theology

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Stephen G. Ray
Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Method of Submission

A rectangular button with rounded corners, a gradient from dark orange to light orange, and a subtle shadow. The text "Submit to OP3" is centered in white, bold, sans-serif font.

Submit to OP3