

Call for Proposals

This Group invites proposals on any topic of relevance to our Group. We particularly welcome , papers session and roundtable submissions on the topics listed below. Please contact the listed organizers if you wish to contribute to the following themes:

- Insiders, outsiders, and the question of religious solidarity — Timothy Dobe, Grinnell College, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- The politics of Hinduism in/and Indian independence — Richard H. Davis, Bard College, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Hinduism and festivals, or “mela-ology” — Amanda Huffer, University of California, Riverside, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Rethinking Hinduism and aesthetic traditions — Amanda Huffer, University of California, Riverside, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- The politics of religious sentiment — Brian Pennington, Maryville College, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Tribal/indigenous religiosity — Ramdas Lamb, University of Hawai'i, Manoa, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- The relationship between the Dharma Academy of North America and the Hinduism Group — Ramdas Lamb, University of Hawai'i, Manoa, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Colonialism, postcolonialism and Hinduism — Timothy Dobe, Grinnell College, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it , and Rupa Viswanath, University of Gottingen, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Global Hinduism— Jason Fuller, DePauw University, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

- Transformations and reconfigurations of sacred sites — Abhishek Singh Amar, Hamilton College, This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

If you have questions about the suitability of your session, or would like help in forming one, please feel free to contact one of the co-Chairs.

Mission

This Group was established in 1997 with the mission of providing a forum within the AAR for the academic study of Hinduism as a distinctive world religious tradition including, but not limited to the geographical region of South Asia. The Group seeks to foster research on all periods and registers of Hindu texts and practices through the presentation of new data, critical analysis, and interpretative strategies, based on textual, sociohistorical, ethnographic, philosophical, theological, and theoretical studies. We are particularly interested in forging connections between the study of Hinduism and other areas of religious studies, and we welcome proposals from scholars in the field that can provide such connections.

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposer names are visible to Chairs but anonymous to Steering Committee members.

Questions?

Richard H. Davis
Bard College

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Rupa Viswanath
University of Gottingen

This e-mail address is being protected from spambots. You need JavaScript enabled to view it

Method of Submission

Submit to PAPERS