

Dear Readers:

Welcome back to Religious Studies News! I hope you are enjoying the first hints of Spring.

I am sure you are eager to explore our March issue of RSN. We have a very robust Annual Meeting section, including both the wrap-up of our 2011 Annual Meeting in San Francisco and a lot of information concerning our upcoming 2012 Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois.

The News section contains an interview with our AAR President, a call for colleagues to serve our Academy, and other important information related to the AAR. Please be sure to check our section, the Regions Corner, in which each of our ten Regions has posted information about their upcoming events.

And finally, please be sure to check out our growing Resources section. We have added several items to the website in the months since our last issue. Inside the Resources Menu are several delightful additions to the website, including:

Ask Academic Abby : Advice given on professional concerns and how to navigate the occasionally treacherous waters of academe. We are always seeking new material.

Member Notes : Member Notes contains announcements about AAR members' professional and career achievements.

Recommended Reading : Influential, pivotal, seminal, or otherwise important publications in various fields of religion and theology. Additions have been made to this section.

Sincerely,
Stephanie Gray
RSN Editor
